

The Attorneys At Ericson, Scalise & Mangan, PC

Kristen M. Lynn

Kristen is a trusted advisor for individuals and families who seek practical strategies for their estate planning and estate-related needs. Her practice focuses on trust and estate planning, Medicaid / Title XIX, probate, and business succession planning. Kristen also handles residential and commercial real estate transactions.

After obtaining her Juris Doctor from Quinnipiac University School of Law in 2007, Kristen went on to attend Georgetown Law School in Washington, D.C. where she earned a master's degree (LL.M.) in Private Wealth and Estate Planning.

Kristen is a member of the Connecticut Bar Association's Trust and Estate and Elder Law sections and the Greater New Britain Chamber of Commerce. As an active volunteer with the Alzheimer's Association Connecticut Chapter, Kristen currently serves as a committee member for the Walk to End Alzheimer's. She has also served on the Board of Directors for Love of Learning, Inc., a nonprofit educational organization, and the Continuing Legal Education Committee for the Connecticut Bar Association Elder Law Section. Kristen has also volunteered with the Truancy Intervention Project, where she worked with students to address issues contributing to chronic absenteeism.

In her spare time, Kristen enjoys spending time by the ocean and exploring local towns and restaurants throughout Connecticut along with her two sons.

Email: klynn@esmlaw.com

Phone: 860.515.3393

View my profile on Avvo

Areas of Practice

Estate Planning & Trusts
Special Needs Planning
Medicaid / Title XIX
Business Succession Planning
Probate
Real Estate

Education

Quinnipiac University School of Law
(J.D., 2007)
Georgetown Law School (LL.M. in
Private Wealth and Estate Planning,
2008)
Estate Planning (yearly)

