

LAW OFFICES OF
ERICSON, SCALISE & MANGAN, PC
Building Relationships Since 1945.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jill Kovalich, Director of Marketing
info@jmkmarcomm.com | (860) 833-2154

Avon and New Britain Law Firms Expand Through Acquisition

(January 11, 2022 – Avon, Conn.) Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., in New Britain, is pleased to announce its expansion with the acquisition of the Avon law practice of Attorney Michael J. Donoghue.

Established in 1945, Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., provides a range of legal services for Connecticut individuals, families, and business owners with a focus on Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate, and Elder Law. The firm was voted Best Elder Care Attorneys in the 2021 New Britain Herald Readers' Poll.

Combined with Atty. Donoghue's established practice in Estate and Trusts, Probate, and Business planning, clients will gain access to legal guidance from a larger team of attorneys and support staff for Title XIX/Medicaid, Criminal and Motor Vehicle defense, Personal Injury, and Fiduciary services.

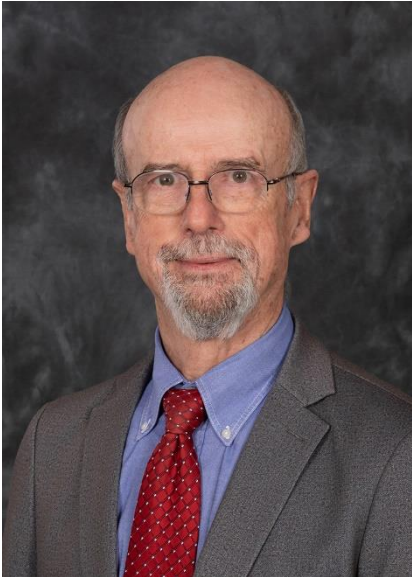

"We are very pleased with this acquisition and how closely our values and practice areas are aligned," says Managing Partner, Atty. Robert Scalise, Jr. "We look forward to working closely with Attorney Donoghue through this transition and serving the needs of clients in the greater Avon area," he adds.

Atty. Donoghue's long-time Paralegal, Judith Henry, will stay on with the newly expanded firm and continue to provide support for probate and estate administration. ESM is pleased to gain a paralegal with her experience. The firm's office at 111 Simsbury Road, in Avon, will remain open to serve clients in that area, and Atty. Donoghue will be available to assist throughout the transition.

About Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C.

Ericson, Scalise & Mangan, P.C., provides a range of legal services for Connecticut individuals, families, and business owners with a focus on Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate, and Elder Law. The firm also provides legal guidance on Estates and Trusts, Business Law, Title XIX (Title 19)/Medicaid, Criminal and Motor Vehicle defense, Personal Injury, and Fiduciary Services. Building enduring, trusting, relationships with our clients is the hallmark of at Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C. Since 1945, our attorneys have earned that trust through their solid legal credentials, experience, and an uncompromising commitment to represent our clients' best interests. Learn more at <https://esmlaw.com/>.

Attorney Michael J. Donoghue

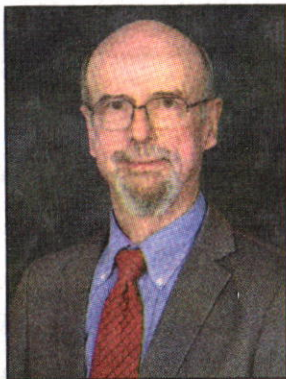

Avon, N.B. Law firms expand through acquisition

Submitted release

Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., in New Britain, recently announced its expansion with the acquisition of the Avon law practice of Attorney Michael J. Donoghue.

Established in 1945, Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., provides a range of legal services for Connecticut individuals, families, and business owners with a focus on Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate, and Elder Law.

Combined with Atty. Donoghue's established practice in Estate and Trusts, Probate, and Business planning, clients will gain access to legal guidance from a larger team of attorneys and support staff for Title XIX/Medicaid, Criminal and Motor Vehicle defense, Personal Injury, and Fiduciary services.

Michael J. Donoghue

"We are very pleased with this acquisition and how closely our values and practice areas are aligned," says Managing Partner, Atty. Robert Scalise, Jr. "We look forward to working closely with Attorney Donoghue through this transition and serving the needs of clients in the greater Avon area," he adds.

Atty. Donoghue's long-time Paralegal, Judith Henry, will stay on with the newly expanded firm and continue to provide support for probate and estate administration. ESM is pleased to gain a paralegal with her experience. The firm's office at 111 Simsbury Road, in Avon, will remain open to serve clients in that area, and Atty. Donoghue will be available to assist throughout the transition.

Learn more about Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C. at <https://esm-law.com/>.

LAW OFFICES OF
ERICSON, SCALISE & MANGAN, PC
Building Relationships Since 1945.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jill Kovalich, Director of Marketing
info@jmkmarcomm.com | (860) 833-2154

New Britain Law Firm Expands with Acquisition

(December 10, 2021 – New Britain, Conn.) Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., in New Britain, is pleased to announce its expansion with the acquisition of the Avon law practice of Attorney Michael J. Donoghue.

Established in 1945, Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C., provides a range of legal services for Connecticut individuals, families, and business owners with a focus on Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate, and Elder Law. The firm was voted Best Elder Care Attorneys in the 2021 New Britain Herald Readers' Poll.

Combined with Atty. Donoghue's established practice in Estate and Trusts, Probate, and Business planning, clients will gain access to legal guidance from a larger team of attorneys and support staff for Title XIX/Medicaid, Criminal and Motor Vehicle defense, Personal Injury, and Fiduciary services.

"We are very pleased with this acquisition and how closely our values and practice areas are aligned," says Managing Partner, Atty. Robert Scalise, Jr. "We look forward to working closely with Attorney Donoghue through this transition and serving the needs of clients in the greater Avon area," he adds.

Atty. Donoghue's long-time Paralegal, Judith Henry, will stay on with the newly expanded firm and continue to provide support for probate and estate administration. ESM is pleased to gain a paralegal with her experience. The firm's office at 111 Simsbury Road, in Avon, will remain open to serve clients in that area, and Atty. Donoghue will be available to assist throughout the transition.

About Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C.

Ericson, Scalise & Mangan, P.C., provides a range of legal services for Connecticut individuals, families, and business owners with a focus on Estate Planning, Probate, Real Estate, and Elder Law. The firm also provides legal guidance on Estates and Trusts, Business Law, Title XIX (Title 19)/Medicaid, Criminal and Motor Vehicle defense, Personal Injury, and Fiduciary Services. Building enduring, trusting, relationships with our clients is the hallmark of at Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, P.C. Since 1945, our attorneys have earned that trust through their solid legal credentials, experience, and an uncompromising commitment to represent our clients' best interests. Learn more at <https://esmlaw.com/>.

December 14, 2021

New Britain law firm Ericson, Scalise and Mangan acquires Avon practice

PHOTO | PIXABAY

By Zachary Vasile

New Britain law firm Ericson, Scalise and Mangan is expanding with its acquisition of the Avon office of Attorney Michael J. Donoghue.

In a statement released Monday, officials with Ericson, Scalise and Mangan said the buyout will expand the range of legal services available to clients of both firms.

Ericson, Scalise and Mangan, also known as ESM, specializes primarily in estate planning, probate matters, real estate and elder law.

Donoghue's practice is focused on estates and trusts, probate and business planning.

Financial details of the linkup were not disclosed.

"We are very pleased with this acquisition and how closely our values and practice areas are aligned," said Managing Partner Robert Scalise, Jr. "We look forward to working closely with Attorney Donoghue through this transition and serving the needs of clients in the greater Avon area."

Donoghue's office at 111 Simsbury Road will remain open to serve clients in the area, ESM said, and Donoghue will be on hand to assist during the transition period as the two firms come together.

Donoghue's long-time paralegal, Judith Henry, will stay on with Ericson, Scalise and Mangan and continue to provide support for probate and estate administration, the firm said.